

Policy 503.6: Good Conduct Rule

Status:
ADOPTED

Original Adopted
Date: 8/5/2022

Participation in school activities is a privilege. School activities provide the benefits of promoting additional interests and abilities in the students during their school years and for their lifetimes. Students who participate in school sponsored activities serve as ambassadors of the school throughout the calendar year, whether away from school or at school. Students who wish to have the privilege of participating in school sponsored activities must conduct themselves in accordance with board policy and must refrain from activities which are illegal, immoral or unhealthy. Students who fail to abide by this policy and the administrative regulations supporting it may be subject to disciplinary measures. The principal shall keep records of violations of the good conduct rule. It shall be the responsibility of the CEO to develop rules and regulations for school activities. Students wanting to participate in school activities must meet the requirements set out by the school district for participation in the activity.
